

Jesus Clears Merchants From the Temple John 2:13-22

Can infants, toddlers, and twos worship God? Of course they can! Their worship may not look like adult worship, but worship is our heart response to God. These little ones are just beginning to develop their perceptions of God. We can do many creative things to help young children begin to learn who God is and to express their love for God. Children can clap, dance, sing, shout, or softly speak their worshipful prayers. God accepts any worship response that comes from our hearts.

Jesus Clears Merchants From the Temple

John 2:13-22

BIBLE BACKGROUND
FOR LEADERS

Temple Laws Gone Wrong

Strict regulations guided the activity that was to take place in the Temple. This was to remain a holy place, the dwelling place of God. According to Isaiah 56:7, it was to be a house of prayer.

Unfortunately, the Jewish leaders, who strictly upheld laws that were convenient for them, saw an opportunity for profit in the animals to be sacrificed at the Temple. Any animal to be offered as a sacrifice was to be perfect, free from blemish. And people bringing animals for sacrifice surely chose the best from the flocks and herds. But when Jewish pilgrims brought their animals for sacrifice, the Temple inspectors regularly found something wrong with them. Then they would conveniently offer animals they had approved—for many times the going price outside the Temple.

Merchants also were exchanging money—giving people the Temple currency in exchange for their Roman or other foreign coins. The Temple currency was required for paying the Temple tax. From Jesus' disdain of this practice, it's easy to assume that people were also being cheated in this process.

Jesus Clears the Temple

It's likely that Jesus' response, while passionate, was not a purely emotional outburst. He saw what was going on in the Temple, he took time to make a whip from some ropes, and then he took appropriate action. Jesus was angry, and rightly so, but not out of control. He told the merchants, "Stop turning my Father's house into a marketplace!"

The Merchants' Response

The Jews' response is interesting. They didn't deny that they had been doing wrong. No one asked Jesus why he did what he did. No one angrily struck back at Jesus out of righteous indignation. Their only response was to ask, "How can you prove you have the authority to do this?" When people know they're in the wrong, they often resort to legalistic maneuvering to try to blur the plain evidence of their guilt.

The Jesus Connection

Jesus' passion in this account reveals that he desires a real relationship with his people. Nothing—no money-changers or legalism—can get in the way of his love for you!

Does Jesus need to "drive out" wrong worship from your life? How have distracting thoughts, focus on self, or efforts to appear spiritual hindered your own sincere worship? Take a moment to physically bow down before God. Spend time silently clearing out the "Temple courts" in your life and praising God with a sincere heart. You can write your prayer here.

2 BIBLE EXPLORATION

Adore Him!

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Gather a group of 2-year-olds together. Open your Bible to John 2:13-22. Show children the words and tell them the Bible is God's special book.

Say: God told us to save one day to worship him. Set out the "Worship Tent." Show children the picture of the family at church. This family is at church to worship God. We're at church right now. We can worship God at church. ► WORSHIP GOD.

Show children the "Jesus Clears the Temple" poster.

Say: One day when Jesus went to the Temple, or church, he saw people weren't worshipping God. They were selling things and tricking other people. This made Jesus mad. Jesus made those people leave the Temple. Jesus reminded the people who came to the Temple that it's God's house. We worship God at church. When we come to church, we get to play, be with friends, and learn about God. When we're at church, we worship God together. Help children press their first finger in the ink and then make a fingerprint on the poster. We put our mark on this poster to show that we're together at church. We have fun together, but Jesus wants us to remember that worship is important to God. ► WORSHIP GOD.

Clean children's fingers with wet wipes. Then say: Let's worship God right now in a quiet way. Whisper a prayer expressing appreciation for who God is. God likes worship. He likes to hear us tell him we love him. Let's all shout together, "We love you, God!"

Show the picture of the house, and ask: Can you find the family in this picture? Where is the family? Wait for answers.

Say: This family is at home. It's fun to worship God at home, too. Worship is important to God.

Ask: What do you do at home to show God that you love him? Allow time.

Say: One of the ways we can worship God anywhere is to sing to him. Let's sing a song. When we sing "Hallelujah!" we'll sit down. When we sing "Praise ye the Lord!" we'll stand up. Help children sit and stand as you sing "Hallelujah!" (not on the CD).

Growing With Jesus

Made to Worship

Little ones love to sing and move their bodies to music. Use their natural love for song and movement to help them worship God. Join in with your child and express your love for God together, even if you can't carry a tune or clap to the rhythm. Your child won't care and neither will God!

Your child learned that we worship God (from John 2:13-22). Your child participated in one of the following activities today. You can use these activities with your child to help your child grow with Jesus throughout the week.

INFANT

Hallelujah Splash

Put about one-half inch of water in a baking pan. Help your baby explore the baking pan to recognize the water. Show your baby how to slap his or her hands flat in the water to make a splash. Shout "Hallelujah!" as your baby enjoys the sound and feel of splashing the water.

Say: Thank you, God, for water. We splash our praise to you! Worship is important to God.

Empty the pan and set it out of your child's reach when done.

TODDLER

Go, Go, Go to Church

Make a church and a house from shoe boxes or other small boxes. Draw a cross on top of the church. Set out cars, trucks, and play people. Encourage your toddler to put people in the cars and trucks and take them from the house to the church.

As your child plays, sing "Go, Go, Go to Church" to the tune of "Row, Row, Row Your Boat":

Go, go, go to church early this Sunday.
Go, go go to church—
worship God today!

2-YEAR-OLD

Take Time for Jesus

Have your child use blocks to build a church. Hold hands and stand around the church. Sing this song to the tune of "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star" as you walk in a circle around the church:

Busy, busy, walk, walk, walk!
Time to worship, so we stop!

Remind your child that worship is important to God.

Use these ideas to help your child become a FaithWeaver:

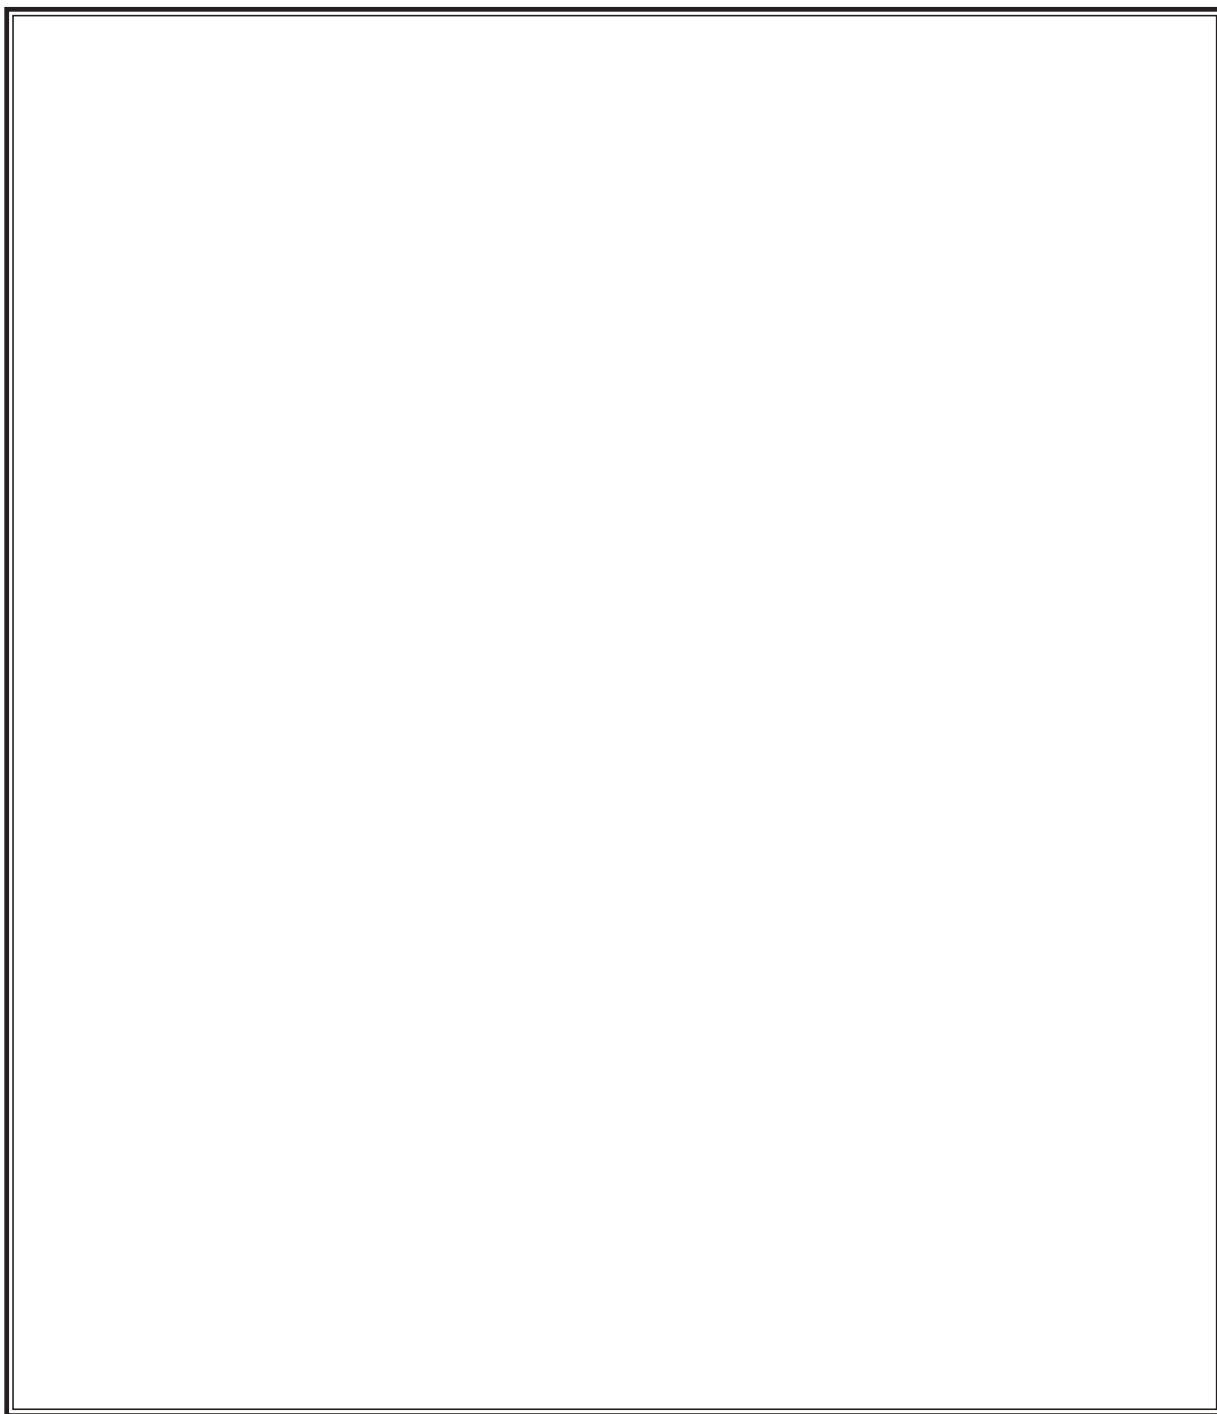

- Share your favorite worship song with your child. Sing it frequently throughout the day to emphasize that worship can happen anytime, anywhere.
- While you're in the car, look out the window and praise God out loud for different things you see. Make it a game, encouraging your child to point out what he or she sees, too.
- Share a nature walk with your child and search for things God made that you both can pick up and hold in your hands.
